

‘TIS THE SEASON
2012

The Lone Star Celebration Christmas Tree 2012

Celebrate the season and view the creativity of Texans from across the state. The Lone Star Celebration Christmas Tree is currently on display in the House Chamber and showcases the Texas-sized talent of constituents statewide.

For the fourth consecutive year, members of the Texas House of Representatives were invited to decorate the 2012 Lone Star Celebration Christmas Tree with an ornament created in their district. This unique collection now hangs proudly on a native Texas tree celebrating the many facets of our nation's second largest state, home to 26 million people.

The following pages provide a closer look at these handcrafted treasures. Many ornaments have been received with still more to come. Ornaments are featured by district number. Should you need assistance, the link provided will help you find your representative and district number:

The Texas House of Representatives would like to thank the Texas Christmas Tree Growers Association for providing this 20-foot Virginia Pine from Elves Farm in Denison, Texas.

Evergreen Farms in Elgin, Texas, and Tim's Trees in Wheelock, Texas, have also generously donated Christmas trees now located throughout the Capitol.

REPRESENTATIVE GEORGE LAVENDER

District 1

The deer atop this ornament and the acorns contained within symbolize the great outdoors of East Texas. Texas is also depicted with a gold star representing Austin and a bright jewel representing the heart of District 1. The artist competed against approximately three hundred other students from the district to win the honor of having his ornament included on the 2012 Lone Star Celebration Christmas Tree. The other students' submissions will hang proudly on a local tree in Representative George Lavender's district office.

Artist: Christopher McDaniel
Morriss Elementary School

REPRESENTATIVE DAN FLYNN

District 2

The ornament for District 2, entitled “Christmas in East Texas,” was crafted in small pieces and assembled through the top of the ornament to create a snow globe showcasing the Van Zandt County Courthouse. The jewel suspended in the center represents the star that led the wise men to the Savior. The scripture referencing the “East” is fitting for this small East Texas community.

*Artist: Ariel Ashton
Martin’s Mill High School Art Department*

REPRESENTATIVE LANCE GOODEN

District 4

The winter flurry of white and light blue swirling waves represents the movement of the Christmas spirit through District 4 during this time of year.

Artist: Christi Barrett

REPRESENTATIVE LEO BERMAN

District 6

This ornament honors the rose industry that is vital to the communities in and around District 6, specifically Tyler. Begun in the mid-1800s, the rose plant industry in this area now produces millions of roses each year.

*Artists: Sinchana Basoor, Valencia Miles, Kasey Santucci,

Artist: Deb Miller

REPRESENTATIVE JIM PITTS

District 10

This ornament depicts the historic courthouses in Ellis and Hill Counties, the two counties that comprise District 10. The ornament also is decorated with a cotton boll and a crepe myrtle bloom, both of which are commonly found in the area.

Artist: Emily Oliver

REPRESENTATIVE CHUCK HOPSON

District 11

The District 11 ornament honors Joe Wright Elementary School in Jacksonville, Texas. 2012 was a hallmark year for the school as it relocated to a new campus. The blue polka-dotted ribbon indicates the unity of purpose of the school's staff. The narrow gold ribbon, cut in varying lengths, signifies the uniqueness of each child. Within the ornament, intertwining strips of blue and gold – the school colors – depict the confidence, positive worth and outstanding achievement of each child. The future of the school, its staff and students continues to be merry and bright.

*Artist: Brad Stewart (student)
Joe Wright Elementary School*

REPRESENTATIVE LOIS KOLKHORST

District 13

The counties that make up District 13 – Austin, Grimes, Walker and Washington – represent the cradle of liberty for Texas' independence in the 1830s. This ornament is meant to capture the character and the guiding principles of the district's people: from its earliest settlers, who fought for freedom, to those who came seeking new lives because of that liberty. All relied deeply on faith and hard work.

Artist: Heather Mason Fuller

REPRESENTATIVE JOHN RANEY

District 14

This ornament, entitled “The Drummer Boy,” depicts a young drummer in the Brazos Valley of District 14. As he plays his drum in celebration of Christmas, he dreams of one day marching in the “Fightin’ Texas Aggie Band” at Texas A&M University.

Artist: John Grant

REPRESENTATIVE ROB EISSLER

District 15

*D*istrict 15 is home to people representing many cultures from around the world, ranging from Australia to Spain and India, to mention a few.

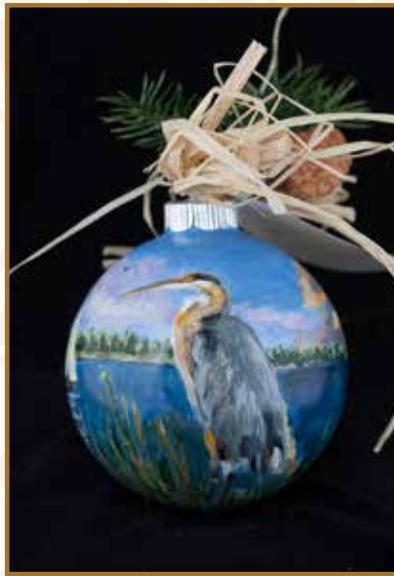

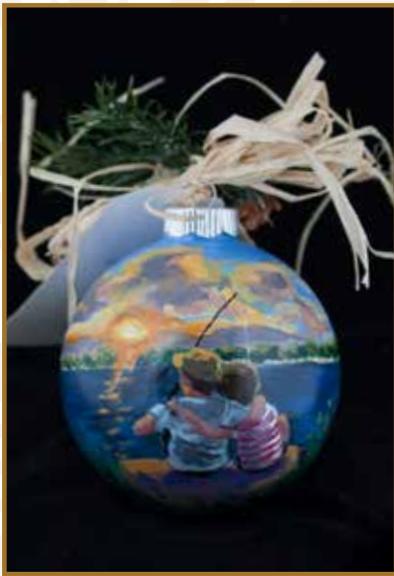

This ornament honors each through designs commonly found in their traditional works of art.

*Artist: Anani Linnea
Woodlands Art League*

REPRESENTATIVE BRANDON CREIGHTON

District 16

The theme for District 16's ornament is Lake Conroe, home to abundant birds and wildlife. The front of the ornament features a blue heron standing on the shore of the lake. From sunup to sundown, Lake Conroe is a 21,000 acre playground of water skiing, boating and fishing. The pine tree-covered shores invite family picnics, golfing and camping. The lake's stunning sunsets are reflected on the reverse side of the ornament with a little boy and girl fishing along the bank under the setting sun.

Artist: Nancy Parsons

REPRESENTATIVE TIM KLEINSCHIMDT

District 17

The District 17 ornament honors the strength and valiant spirit exhibited by the people of the Bastrop area after the traumatic wildfires of September 2011.

Painted on the ornament are Loblolly Pines and a sky inspired by Vincent Van Gogh's "Starry Night," along with bear footprints and eagles to represent the students of Bastrop ISD; contained within are pine needles collected after the fires.

This ornament represents the purity and beauty of District 28. The tranquil colors exemplify the calmness and beauty of the district, while the golden sparkle symbolizes its purity.

Artist: Brady Stafford

REPRESENTATIVE RANDY WEBER

District 29

This ornament highlights the sport fishing industry that is important to District 29, especially the Matagorda Bay area.

Artist: Janice A. Broussard

REPRESENTATIVE GEANIE MORRISON

District 30

The ornament for District 30 recognizes the cities within the district through a traditional Christmas scene.

Artist: Neldene Matuseuich

REPRESENTATIVE RYAN GUILLEN

District 31

This year's ornament design, inspired by the Boys and Girls Club – Rio Grande City Unit, introduces the new, growing District 31 and reflects a vision for building on the economic progress that is taking place across South Texas. The Lego theme of the ornament represents the “building blocks” for economic growth in the region and signifies the expanding opportunities for youth across the area. The new District 31 consists of Atascosa, Brooks, Duval, Jim Hogg, Kenedy, La Salle, Live Oak, McMullen, Starr and Willacy counties.

Artist: Alejandra Garcia

REPRESENTATIVE TODD HUNTER

District 32

*D*istrict 32 is located on the Gulf Coast and includes the city of Corpus Christi in its boundaries.

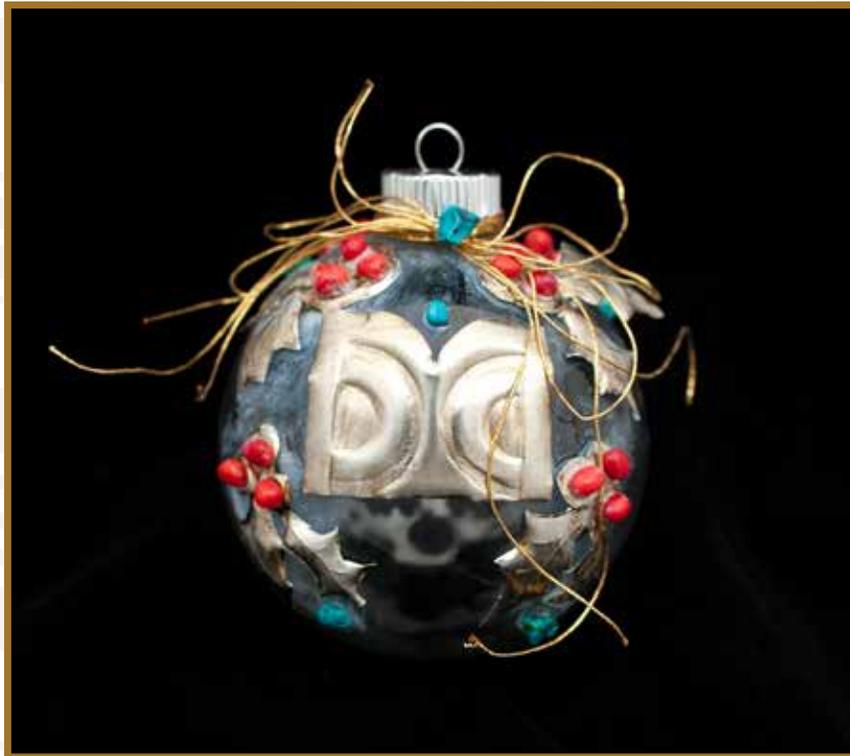

The colors and jewel elements of this ornament represent the water and the outdoors, the bay and the ocean, the beauty and the sparkle... all of which are an everyday part of life in the city that is known as “The Sparkling City by the Sea.”

Artist: Maricela Sanchez

REPRESENTATIVE RAUL TORRES

District 33

Artist: Linda Newman

REPRESENTATIVE SERGIO MUÑOZ, JR.

District 36

The artwork for this ornament represents the area encompassed by District 36: the cities of Hidalgo, Granjeno, Mission, Palmview, Penitas and McAllen. The red, white, blue and green ribbons crowning the ornament represent the duality of the area's culture, identity and traditions, as well as the neighborly accord between the United States and Mexico. Different motifs symbolize the variety of historical, natural and educational activities offered throughout the district, such as the Texas Citrus Fiesta, the Texas Butterfly Festival, Beasten State Park, La Lomita Chapel, Hidalgo's Festival of Lights, Hidalgo's Border Fest and legendary natives of the area Tom Landry and Ramon Ayala. An original poem written by the artist is nestled within the ribbons to convey the sentiment of the district's people.

Artist: Cecilia Marie Valdez

REPRESENTATIVE ARMANDO MARTINEZ

District 39

Formerly known as the Cortez Hotel, the Villa de Cortez opened in 1928 and was one of the Rio Grande Valley's finest hotels. Since its opening, it has been an integral part of social and business activities in both Weslaco and throughout District 39.

Artist: Gabriel Salazar

REPRESENTATIVE J.M. LOZANO

District 43

This ornament depicts the diverse characteristics of District 43. The artists have captured the hard working farmers' cotton fields, abundant cacti in the brush country and cattle grazing. Also featured are Texas A&M University-Kingsville and Naval Air Station Kingsville, two important institutions offering higher education and military experience to the district's residents.

Artists: Blessing Tamez, Bethany Vasquez, Taylor Garcia, Kade Womack, Cameron Merriman and Debra C. Hinojosa (Teacher)
Santa Gertrudis School

REPRESENTATIVE JASON ISAAC

District 45

Depicted on District 45's ornament, "The Rivers Run Through It," are the large cypress trees that shade Cypress Creek at Blue Hole Regional Park and Preserve. They, along with the many rivers and creeks that shape the communities around them, are considered true Texas treasures. In Texas' early years, the Pedernales River, Blanco River and San Marcos River, as well as the region's many creeks, were used to form the industry of each town. Today, many still supply water to their communities or simply serve as a beautiful place to cool off on a hot day.

Artist: Madison Barbee (age 9)
Arts from the Heart

REPRESENTATIVE LARRY GONZALES

District 52

The ornament for District 52 depicts a herd of cattle traveling the historic Chisholm Trail, which was an important means of transporting cattle from grazing lands in Texas to markets in the Midwest in the 19th century.

Artist: Kyle W. McBride

REPRESENTATIVE JIMMIE DON AYCOCK

District 54

*D*istrict 54's ornament features the beautiful landscape of Central Texas College and, in celebration of the holiday season, a portrait of Representative Jimmie Don Aycock as Santa Claus.

*Artist: Andrea Hostetter
Central Texas College*

REPRESENTATIVE RALPH SHEFFIELD

District 55

Without the hard work of our soldiers, we would not enjoy our freedom. This ornament is painted in camouflage to represent Fort Hood soldiers. Fort Hood is the largest military base in the United States and is partially located in District 55.

*Artist: Benjamin Jensen
Youngest son of Representative Ralph Sheffield*

REPRESENTATIVE MARVA BECK

District 57

This red leather globe with brown leather fringe, conchos and pearls represents the western elegance seen by the artist in both Representative Marva Beck and District 57.

Artist: Candy Shores

REPRESENTATIVE ROB ORR

District 58

A simple and special tribute to all of Texas and District 58,
O Holy Night, the birth of our savior, Jesus Christ.

Artist: Terri Taylor

REPRESENTATIVE SID MILLER

This ornament, entitled “Circle of Life,” honors Representative Sid Miller and his work to pass House Bill 15 during the 82nd Legislature.

Artist: Kay Marcum

REPRESENTATIVE JIM KEFFER

District 60

The ornament for District 60 is caged in gold wire from which festive wire corkscrews are suspended. The decorations represent the spirit of joy occasioned by the Advent of Christmas. The Christmas message might be understood as our Creator saying to imperfect humanity, “Don’t worry kids, I’ll fix it!”

Artist: Katherine Gordon Rice
Eastland County Arts Incubator

REPRESENTATIVE LARRY PHILLIPS

District 62

This ornament represents life in Grayson County, located in District 62. For the holiday season, representations of the Star of Bethlehem, mistletoe, and the 2012 Lone Star Celebration Christmas tree, upon which this ornament now hangs, are included; this year's tree, located in the House Chamber, came from Denison, which is in Grayson County. The lines on the ornament represent the highways that crisscross the county. The blue invokes the waters of the lakes and rivers, while the green symbolizes the scales of the fish that live in them. Also included are leaves of the district's pecan trees and wildflowers. Lightning represents both the area's turbulent weather and the new power plant. Sports, education, electronics, music and the arts are all featured as important parts of life in Grayson County. And, of course, the cowboy boot represents the region's Western heritage.

Artist: Gwenn Moore

Artist: Michelle Rusk
Plano Children’s Medical Clinic

REPRESENTATIVE JERRY MADDEN

District 67

The students at Great Lakes Academy believe that every Texan's individuality should be celebrated. Inside the ornament for District 67, each paper strip is a mini-composition of Texas pride with characteristics of each student-artist written on one side, and the school district and state written on the opposite side. The exterior painting represents the artists' hopes for a white Christmas!

Artists: Great Lakes Academy Middle School Students

REPRESENTATIVE SUSAN KING

District 71

This is the fourth in the District 71 ornament series entitled “The Jewels of District 71... the People.” Over 1000 individual Swarovski crystals are attached symbolizing the individual and collective spirit of West Texans. The three sections bordered by red, white and blue cowhide cording reveal bands of blue, green and clear crystals reminding Texans of the delicate and rugged balance between our lands and water. The tiny strands of red stones underscore the life blood of our physical existence - water. We are reminded daily of these precious jewels.

Red arrow points direct our focus to God’s gifts of nature, as well as the precious gift of our Lord Jesus Christ as we celebrate His birth.

Artist: Representative Susan Lewis King

REPRESENTATIVE DREW DARBY

District 72

*S*an Angelo, located in District 72, is known as sheep raising country. The white sheep painted on this ornament is set off with a gold leaf antiqued background. It represents one of the prominent symbols of the district and showcases its heritage as a hardworking farming and ranching community.

Artist: René Alvarado

REPRESENTATIVE DOUG MILLER

District 73

This ornament depicts scenes from New Braunfels, Boerne and Fredericksburg, all of which are located in District 73. The cheer of the season is illustrated by sparkles, diamonds in the sky and Santa Claus' flyover on Christmas Eve.

Artist: Jane Felts Mauldin

REPRESENTATIVE NAOMI GONZALEZ

District 76

This ornament's artwork signifies both the unity and the diversity of District 76 by including many area landmarks in its design: the Ysleta del Sur Pueblo "Tigua" Reservation, the El Paso County Coliseum, Ysleta Mission, Lincoln Park, Washington Park, Airport Boulevard, Ascarate Park, Thomas Manor Elementary School, Valley Farm, Interstate 10 and finally, Fort Bliss, home to El Paso's finest military men and women. Working together, these diverse groups solidify the district.

*Artist: Pedro Rios Martinez
Alameda Historic Corridor Project*

REPRESENTATIVE MARISA MARQUEZ
District 77

El Paso High School, located in District 77, has a very rich history and a diverse population of students. The school was built in 1916 at the location known as Our Lady on the Hill. The campus' unique Greco Roman architecture, inspired by the Portico of Octavia in Rome, is listed on the National Historic Register. Now, nearly 97 years later, El Paso High continues its impressive legacy.

*Artist: Ana Iguaran
El Paso High School Art Department*

REPRESENTATIVE DEE MARGO

District 78

This ornament represents the beautiful landscape that the poppy flowers bring every spring to District 78 in El Paso among the Franklin Mountains. The artist presents it as “a piece of El Paso for you to take within your heart.”

Artist: Gisel Estrada

REPRESENTATIVE TRYON LEWIS

District 81

This ornament represents the entire Andrews High School community, which is located in District 81. The Andrews ISD logo featuring the capital 'A' and the Mustang mascot can be found throughout the school district, on school buildings, stationery, t-shirts, uniforms, company names and, most importantly, in residents' hearts. The black at the bottom of the ornament represents oil, or "black gold," which supports the town and the entire region.

Artist: Deborah Wheeler

REPRESENTATIVE CHARLES PERRY

District 83

*I*n the style of a snow globe, the front of the ornament for District 83 depicts a winter scene featuring Texas Tech University's annual Carol of Lights, including the university seal and holiday decorations that make the campus sparkle.

The back features a spring scene showcasing Memorial Circle, which students pass on the way to class, the Will Rogers Memorial, and the national, state and university flags.

Artist: Mackenzie Brown

REPRESENTATIVE JOHN FRULLO

District 84

This ornament reflects West Texas and the artistic community of Lubbock, most of which is located in District 84. The sunset shows the natural beauty of the area, the windmill brings life to the flat and dry land and the barn symbolizes our southern heritage.

Artists: DJ McCallister, Catherine Latour, Kylie Hutcherson, Max Small, Ben Tipton, Hayes McKibben, Brody Sargent

REPRESENTATIVE FOUR PRICE

District 87

This ornament represents the Panhandle's ranching heritage with its depiction of a longhorn and displays of various cattle brands found throughout District 87. The tag hanging from the ornament is made of cowhide in the shape of a tail.

Artist: Kenneth "Ken" Wampler

REPRESENTATIVE WARREN CHISUM

District 88

The jewels inside this ornament represent the myriad of “hidden jewels” found in District 88: oil, gas, water, wind, crop production, livestock, exquisite horizons, open skies, and most of all, its people. Wheat seeds are also included, and etched on the outside in 24 carat gold is “Wheatheart of the Nations,” to honor the area’s biggest “hidden jewel”— wheat production.

Artists: Katy Williams and Sheryl Hardy

REPRESENTATIVE JODIE LAUBENBERG

*Artists: Melissa Brouwer and Kenzi Westergard
Lucas Christian Academy*

REPRESENTATIVE LON BURNAM

District 90

The song “Deep in the Heart of Texas” leads the artist of District 90’s ornament to think about Texas land. Deep in the lives, livelihoods and hearts of Texans, land is key. It is where Texans make their homes, and should be protected from anything that would compromise, corrupt and forever ruin it.

Artist: Tammy M. Gomez

REPRESENTATIVE BARBARA NASH

District 93

This ornament's artwork describes favorite District 93 pastimes as seen through the eyes of the artist, a freshman at Arlington's Lamar High School.

The entertainment district that is home to the Texas Rangers and the Dallas Cowboys brings fun and a great sense of team spirit to the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. The University of Texas at Arlington is experiencing tremendous economic growth, which has contributed to the revitalization of downtown Arlington and provided an overall economic impact throughout the state of Texas.

*Artist: Shelby Walker
Lamar High School*

REPRESENTATIVE DIANE PATRICK

District 94

*R*epresentative Diane Patrick hosts an art exhibition at the Capitol every year.
